LIVE FROM LFHS . . .

Marty - so you finally earned now to act cool & hang out at the stack! You cool person you!
I am really glad I've known you all these high school & hope to even be best of friends if I go to Arizona state and bellow you. Na, you just may not get rid of me yet. I hope this summer is great & I wish you the best of luck in the future. You've been a great person & a nice friend to have, see you this summer for sure! Love
Navarine

Marty Party had a party, every one was there, Tuffy Frutti let a beauty, they all went up for air, well Marty Telecom was very wierd But I had a good year.
We shall party in the near future at My mansion on the lake. Freak out and do ~~it~~. Pete the man.

MARTY,

THIS YEAR I REALLY GOT TO KNOW YOU & THE APES & IT WAS PRETTY INTENSE. I'M GLAD I'VE KNOWN YOU AND PEOPLE ASSOCIATED WITH THE APES. TALENT SHOW WAS WAS A PARTY AND IF THERE WAS A NICER PERSON I COULD REPLACE
AS BASS PLAYER, IT WAS YOU.
KEEP MELOW. SEE THIS SUMMER (BRIAN WOLFF)

Marty - I had a hell of a time taking all of your shit in TV. But I hope we can party some of your shit - especially about E.H.
I won't be taking any more care of yourself + have a GREAT summer!
PATRICIA

Marty
Yard Apes are the best.
Stop by this summer and we'll go to McCormick and party Parties at Rods were great.
You a great guy - I'm so sucking hung right now.
Party this summer and keep in touch
Rat K. & K.

Mart,
Too bad we couldn't finish
the year together in station.
We really got to know each other even though we are opposites. Have a swell summer and a great four years at U. of A. Ha stay cool and party smartly.
your good friend always
James L. Morris

New Letter Marty - I'm going to avoid avoid statements like, "I hope you always work up to your full potential" because such statements implicitly are suggesting narrow, traditional options.
You did enough this semester to conclude we that you've got a lot to work with. I'll assume that you'll do plenty. Well miss the Apes next year. Take care!
Dave Hoffmann

WTF
I didn't write that
BUT I did say of it
(so I.e)

Marty,
I've down any like your lately. you do best guy I know and you cool cause you don't party at all. But I also lie a lot. see ya round if not Ziggy 1/11/74

Marty, I have had some pretty fun times. Remember all the parties at Rock. That was a blast. Remember Homecoming?
 That was fun too! Have a great summer, Take care too.
 Love Allison

Marty, Nature Walks Rule
 Have Fun with Cynthia Man!
 Wico For Sure massive drugs will come your way so be watchin. See ya at the Cubs
 Marty - Grams. [Signature]

Mart,
 From 1/2 of an Ape to another, I got to say that this year will be the most intoxicating experience of our lives. I had a great time on your fuckin and Fucked up a lot more time will be a lot more
 of those grand parties.
 The stack was ok. When we get stoned in the graveyard and I want to kill your sergeant this summer. From your stack buddy, Wolo

I'm truly, truly, truly glad that I got to know you this year. Your very fun to party with, especially at the Ramada.
 Too bad we didn't see much of you, but I guess you had other things on your mind in that lone hotel. - Just giving you a little shit.

Let's party this summer.
 If you're lucky, you can try me, Hilary & Kims sleek new Blue 3ft. bong.
 Get psyched!!

Love ya,
 Julie

[Signature]
 for Kathy

Had a good time
 partying w/ you guys!
 (to do it more often (maybe) take it easy & try not to lose to many brain cells! He Oh yeah you shouldn't drink like it's lead for your thumps. Keepin' touch & will ~~do some~~ have a white summer! 295 7923 See ya

Marty

Marty,

This year was so unusual for the two of us.
"To live in hearts
we leave behind
is not to die."

There is so much to say I don't know where to begin. We have had our differences but I hope they will by-pass and we always will keep in touch. I love you and you know I always will, because what we have shared together is something very special. Please understand the changes I have gone through, and the pain I have caused you. You are something special and to me you will always be!

Love always Debbie

P.S. Please keep in touch!

Marty,
You really changed since JR High.
Enough is enough man, stop changing!
Victims rule! Have a great life!

1982-1983

[16] MASTERPIECE THEATRE

The plot thickens as the Class of '83 meets and beats the Application Menace on its arduous trek to graduation and college.

[52] THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Emotions peak as the potential disillusionment and despair of college boards stalk the Juniors on their way to Prom.

[62] LITTLE RASCALS

It's fun and frolic time as the Sophs break through the Drivers' Ed roadblock on their helter-skelter way East.

[72] SESAME STREET

Set adrift in LFland the Frosh learn the basic skills to survive both Soph hazing and Health Ed and have fun while they're doing it.

[82] THE GUIDING LIGHT

The turbulence of life on the other side of the desk is featured with all its tribulation, terror and triumph uncensored.

[112] THE AFTER SCHOOL SPECIAL!

This daily special has something for every interest, every need, everybody who participates in club activity.

[136] WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS

Highlights of this year's world class competition combine with real-life performance to provide sports agony and the ecstasy.

[170] THE BIG EVENT

Blockbuster events starring our very own LFHS students come to life in the halls and gyms, on the fields and stages.

Quill and Scroll: Top—Sheila Kennedy, Karla Schulte, Stacey Stevens. Bottom—Laura Greve, Liz Makelim.

For prospective students, here are the guidelines. The top 25% of junior and senior classes are eligible for National Honor Society. Emphasis is on extra-curricular activities. Cum Laude consists of the top academic 5—10%. National Merit Semi-Finalists are those who receive a very high score on PSAT's. Students who have outstanding achievement in literary publications are honored with Quill and Scroll.

Student Council

Student Council has had a good season. They've brought variety into the regular line-up of school days. The hit show in fall was donkey-basketball. The Christmas special was a Holiday Dance. And in winter there was the week-long mini-series, Spirit Week. Stay tuned.

With Karla Schulte as Lake Forest High School's version of Lou Grant, the Forest Scout has turned into a paper that joins the two campuses together. Reporters from all classes worked to produce a first-class paper. New Columns like "Pick of the Parking Lot" and "Off the Wall" showed up to amuse all readers. Mr. Hajost was there to lend his advice. The bi-weekly paper came out on Fridays with the setting of the paper the week before. The Tribune and Daily Planet look out! The Forest Scout is on the way.

YOUNG IDEA

Young Idea beat the competition from the other channels and once again returned for a new season. Mrs. Lowey and editor Bonnie Ross turned the members into a fine staff and good critics of material. The annual Advent Calendar sold as expected and the staff was on the lookout for stories, poems, and art that would produce the best magazine ever. The Young Idea bulleting board was prominent again with magazines of the past and art work, etc. The poster was as spectacular as ever and the future looks good for seasons to come! With the two campuses joining, a staff of all classes can be achieved as well as more stories submitted from underclassmen.

A typical yearbook scene

This year's yearbook staff was busy deciding the t.v. guide schedule. All the hassles and worries of the season occurred and were not solved. Just Kidding! It's not my fault, Stacey! . . . You're the editor, it's your decision . . . It's all under control, (Chris) . . . Not another play! (Diane) . . . I hate cropping! (Annabel) . . . Parvin, do you have a bucket? . . . And in the corner, Georgie, the only calm one in the bunch . . . Mrs. Silber: It's here someplace!

DRAMA AND DEBATE CLUBS

Drama Club: Back: Marilyn Burke, Kristin Weithas, Lauri McGregor Front: Ariane Machean, Nadine LaRose, Mrs. Alleman

Drama Club was another new addition to the ABC Afterschool Special and Mrs. Alleman and Pres. Marilyn Burke worked hard to keep it there. With about 12 members, five of whom are shown above, the club was a sure success. A carmel apple sale was held to finance field trips to area professional plays. Short plays for younger children and an act for talent show were being planned. Discussion, pantomime, and improvisation were all a part of Drama Club.

Debate Club was under the leadership of Mr. Richards officers Doug & Mike Beck, Georgette Pliml, and Mike Putrus. Seen mostly at both high school and college tournaments. Debate Club is sure to be renewed next year!

FORENSICS

Forensics was another season returner this year with Mr. Ferry and Co-Captains Chris Leoris, Chris Exline and Liz Makelim taking charge. A speech tournament was held and the club traveled to other tournaments.

MICRO & APPLE PANIC COMPUTER

Apple Panic/Comp: Jon Moore, Jeff Given, Drew Wasson, Steve Seiler, Bob Birkenes, Johannes Schoon, Fred Liu

The Apple Panic/Computer Club of East had members in afterschool playing games, talking computer lingo or just reading magazines almost everyday. Mr. Benton and Mr. Fossell gave advise and were planning to do some kind of contest second semester. A total of ten Apple II computers were in the school, two in the science wing and eight in the A-V center.

The Microcomputer Club of West campus was under the leadership of Mr. Fincutter and Pres. Henry Newcomb, V.P. Dan Considine, Sec. Alyna Chien and Treas. Tarik Khatib. The sale of Entertainment '83 coupon books was held to raise money. A computer game tournament was held as well as monthly meetings on topics of interest to all members.

If you look, Parvin and Diana are on the end to the right!

Math Club was often seen on the ABC Afterschool Special and was very popular. The ever-witty and wise Mr. Doubet was the advisor and Pres. Mike Beck, V.P. Doug Beck, Sec. Parvin Pahlavan, Treas. Marilyn Burke, and Publicity chairman Marcello Camoletto led the club in pursuit of mathematical problems and solutions. Various speakers gave lectures and members participated in the Illinois Math League. Next year be sure to look for Math Club on the airwaves!

CHESS AND BOOK CLUBS

Chess Club: Back: Bob Birkenes, Jonathan Moore, Jeff Given, Mr. Brooke; Front: Steve Saltiel, Jim Green, Mitchell Gladstone, Jim Pliml, Dan Berger

Chess Club was busy with 5 matches against other schools and the state team as well as the state individual tournaments. Mr. Brooke was the advisor.

The Dungeons and Dragons Fantasy Book Club was once again on the schedule and very successful under Mr. Mullin and Pres. David Smith. Meeting daily, books were read and D&D was played to its magical end.

Returning Americans from the summer program are paving the way for next year's candidates. Leslie Schleicher was in Colombia, Allison Sennello in Italy, Biff McCabe in the Honduras, Chris Berise in Switzerland, and Greg Baumeyer in Uruguay. Welcome home returnees and Bon Voyage Finalists!

International Club was kept busy this year by Pres. Joan Chruscicki, Treas. Bob Birkenes, Sec. Bonnie Ross, and sponsor Mrs. McMurrin. The annual pizza sale was held and visitors Patricia Belluz, Switzerland; Paola Dondi, Italy; Johannes Schoon, Sweden; and Joseph Van Delft, Belgium were welcomed with open arms. A successful candygram sale and AFS weekend were sponsored.

CH. 7—GERMAN AND RIFLE CLUBS

German Club was off to a great start this year with Pres. Jon Moore, V.P. Drew Wasson, Treas. Kevin Jadvani, Sec. Evette Mann, and sponsor Mrs. Sorenson leading the way. From painting a window uptown for Homecoming, to selling Advent calendars, the club has been very active. Oktoberfest was spent at Hans Bavarian Lodge this year where fun was the main idea. The major event of participating in the German-American Trade Fair in March was underway in January, with the club going for its third consecutive win in the business division. Viel Glück im neuem Jahr!

The Illinois Future Problem Solvers sponsored by Mr. Spooner was a good addition to the schedule of PBS and channel 11. If finding solutions to tough questions appeals to you, then this was the club for you. Under the leadership of captain Steve Anderson, the team was preparing for the state contest held in May.

Bowling Club was a new addition to the airwaves and held a good share of the audience. With the help of Mr. Hjortness and Mrs. Lederhaas, the club was very active. Every Wednesday the Libertyville Lanes were thundering with the sound of the LFHS bowlers getting strikes and spares. All of the four-member teams are vying for trophies and who knows, we may have a future champ on campus!

CH. 2: DRAFTING AND M CAREERS

Drafting Club: Brian Borg, Mitchell Gladstone, Joe Harris, Paul Herstrom, Dan Hoffman, Bob Kamm, Kurt Klingenberg, Greg Marino, Todd Mueller, Megan Ryan

Under the leadership of Pres. Todd Mueller and advisor Mr. Pelinka, drafting club was successfully started. The main goal of the club is to give interested students a chance to explore the opportunities and the drafting field in greater depth.

With advisors Mrs. Lent and Mrs. Phillips, Pres. Kevin Jadvani, V.P. Phil Co and Sec. Annabel Co led the Medical Careers Club on a busy schedule which kept the viewers glued to their seats. A trip to IIT and Rush University kept all informed about the medical field. Stockings were stuffed for the Red Cross and plans for the Valentine Candygram sale were made. The season ender was the student blood drive held in May. And as the club found out, the teachers were bigger chickens than the students. Look out Marcus Welby and Trapper John, Medical Careers is on the move.

Radio Club replaced WKRP on the airwaves this season and swept the audience off its feet. Providing music six periods a day kept the disc jockeys and station managers and Mrs. Elmore busy. Besides giving us a sample of music, announcements were made to keep all informed of upcoming events. A field trip was taken in November to see WFYR and the work put into a real station and WLFH compared favorably. Thanks to these dedicated workers, male and female, Lake Forest High School had the best of the music world.

INTERNATIONAL JET SET

The Varsity Club is open to all students, male and female, who have earned a varsity letter. Unfortunately, because of practice conflicts, we were unable to assemble the whole group after school. While the club does not meet regularly they are continuing in their tradition of service to the school, including their ushering duties at various plays and athletic events.

Our foreign exchange students are continuing in their tradition of helping us broaden our perspectives.

With the support of director, Mrs. Cecil, the Forester Singers started another busy year. The forty-seven member group was very active performing at private parties, country clubs and other places. At Christmas time, caroling at Old Orchard shopping mall and in the Lake Forest business district was the name of the game. The annual citrus fruit sale was successful and helped raise money for the trip to Italy during the spring break. Stops included Rome, Venice, Milan, and Florence.

The Swing Choir is composed of 10 Foresters and combines dance and song. Practicing after school for competitions kept all occupied.

The Madrigals is another group formed out of 16 Foresters. In the interest of spreading a little of Merrie Olde Englande, a highly successful Madrigal Evening was given. All decked out in the Medieval finery, Dances and songs were performed. Jesters enticed and plum pudding and wassail were tasted by all.

The two groups on these pages are enough to threaten the ratings of Lawrence Welk. The orchestra was under the guidance of Mrs. Schmidt and kept busy learning new music, etc. Performing the Messial at the Pops Concert was the crowning achievement. Band and Jazz Band were under the tutelage of Mr. Borich and when they weren't busy practicing for the various concerts held, musicians could be found everywhere. The pep band was seen at football games and basketball games, was made up of musicians from the larger band. Whenever you hear the school song played with a lot of enthusiasm, you know it's the pep band. With people from all classes, the band is here to stay!

Homecoming 1982: Whatever

Happened to the Class of '65?

This year's Homecoming was a tremendous display of school spirit. The week of the game many clubs decorated shop windows in Lake Forest. At the school, classes and clubs decorated their classroom doors; Mrs. Silber's second and third period honors English classes won the prize for the best door at West Campus and the Drama Club won at East Campus.

Other activities included the Powder Puff football games during the lunch periods, Scout Day, Blue and Gold Day, the All-School Pep Rally at East, and the West Campus bonfire where a Viking was roasted.

Homecoming Queen, Nina Unkovskoy, and her court, Lynn Kucera, Pam Santostefano, Pam Angiuli, Sember Cortesi, and Julie Creath reigned over the football game when the Scouts beat the Niles North Vikings. The day concluded with an informal dance.

Cast (Front to Back): Max Mount, Laura Good, Cathy Richter, Linda Kolterman, Andrea Holm, Laurie Zeeman, Samara Gutch, Bill Dallman, Becky Kuchar, Jill Miaskowsky, Jodie Burke, Tracy Brennen, Kate Kreitzer, Carolyn Andress, John Bardeen, Henry Wimmer, Jenny Lister, Tom Meyer, Bill Robison, Adam Lazarus, John Marcinek, Mary Ditton, Laura Chavariat, Ben White, John Hermann, Jenifer Ganshirt, Lisa Youngclaus, Sophie Degener, Ed Harrigan, Susan West, Ann Unknown, Amy Gram, Barb Caldwell, Dave Mordini. Not pictured: Chris Taylor.

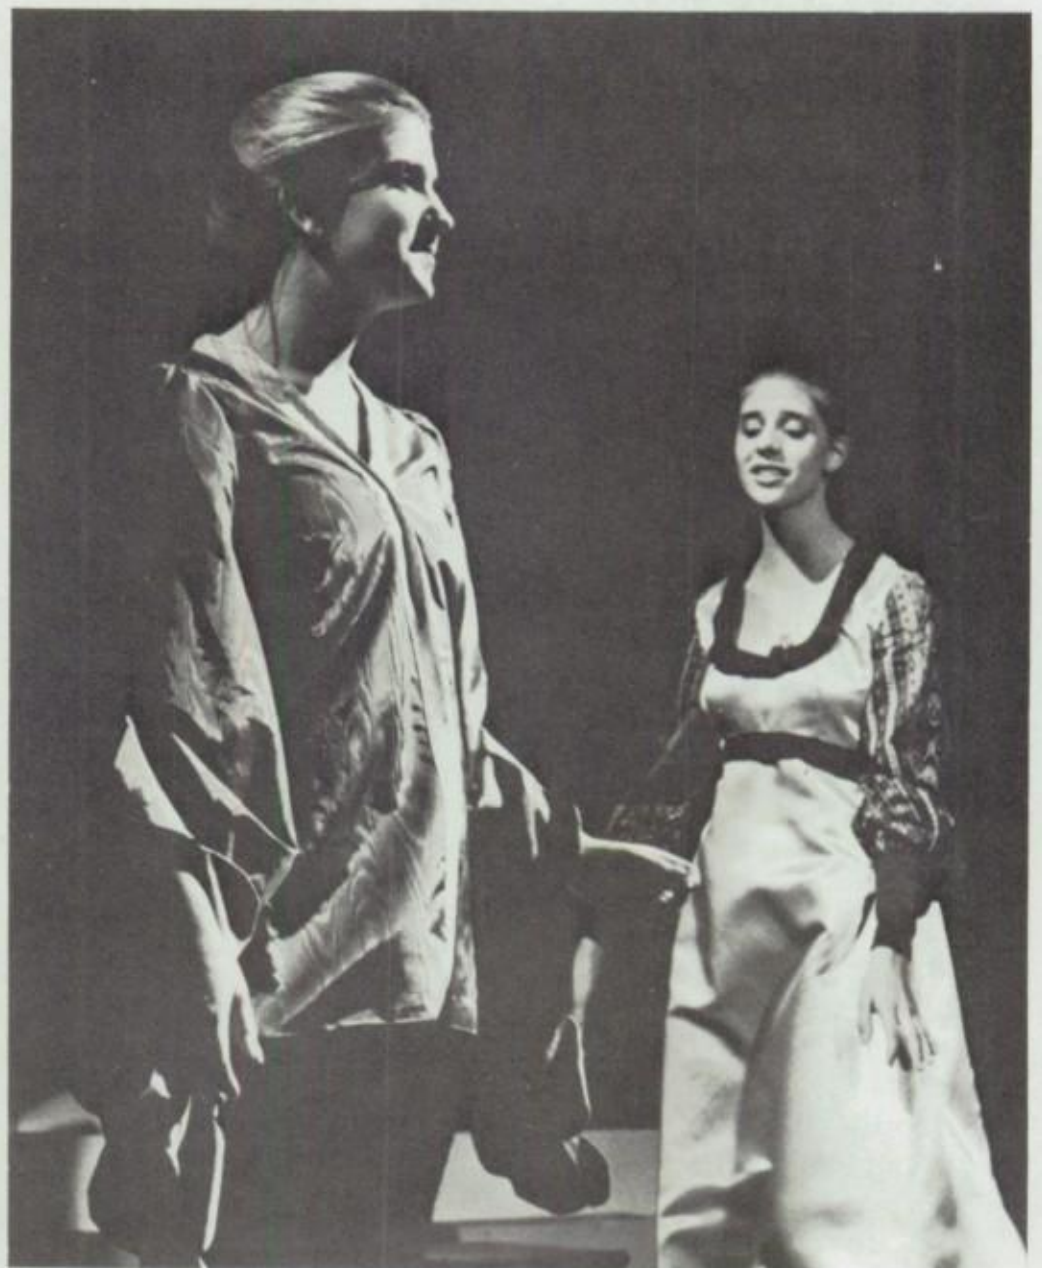

This year's musical production was "Once Upon a Mattress," a comedy loosely based on the old fable of "The Princess and the Pea." The cast, which worked hard to put on a terrific performance, was directed by Jay Criche with musical direction by Virginia Cecil and choreography by Sandy Ragsdale. From Lady Larkin's and Sir Harry's serious love songs, sung by Linda Kolterman and Chris Taylor, to Princess Winnifred's and Prince Dauntless' funny songs and dances, sung and danced by Kate Kreitzer and Bill Dallman, the show was a huge success and all round great entertainment.

The musical set, including towers which suggested a castle and a bed with twenty mattresses, was professionally constructed by Technical Director Dave Miller and his crew. The set, lighting and special effects created by Tech Crew provided a decorative and realistic background for the production.

Theatre West: A Patient In 4B

Theatre West aired "A Patient In 4B" near the end of October. Directed by Louise Chapman and Barbara Papp, the play was a murder mystery set in a nursing home in England in the 1940's. The cast included Laura Chavariat (the patient in 4B), Elisabeth Cochrane, Melissa Remus, Sally Pelinka, Janet Starr, Julie Hasselbring, Denis Duffy, Janet Beer, and Greg Harmon. The great deal of time and effort put into this play was evident in their fine performance. It is hoped that Theatre West will continue next year even though there will be no more West Campus.

Director Henry Wimmer

"Passion, Poison, and Petrification"

"I'm Dreaming, But Am I?"

This year's student directed One Acts consisted of three very unusual plays. "Passion, Poison, and Petrification" written by George Shaw and directed by Adam Lazarus centered on a husband's plot to poison his wife's lover. Luigi Priandello's "I'm Dreaming, But Am I?" was directed by Susan West and was about a woman who confronts her lover in a dream and realizes her own selfishness. "God", a comedy written by Woody Allen and directed by Henry Wimmer centered on a Broadway theatre where cast members in the audience went up on stage to confuse the performers of a Greed tragedy. Head producer Betticlaire Irmingier and over 100 students worked together to put on these 3 diverse plays.

PREMIERING NEXT SEASON:
CLASS OF 1987

Marty:
It was a blast this year, but we didn't do enough partying together. We will this summer though. Remember that night in Disco, I can't believe we got lost, oh well, I have a light, may your your pipe always be full, May your piece of ass always bottle always be tight. P.S. Give me be tight. Love Ya Robin

"Eagle"

Marty,
you are wonderful what everyone says about you!
Congratulations on graduating
I knew you could do it. Good luck with your life. I know it will turn out good. I'm really glad you came into my life
I think you are great.
(Now don't let this go to your head!!) Love ya Always.
